New Fire Line Reaches Into The Forest

Strategically Placed Plugs To Protect Upper Section Of The City

Additional fire protection for the mountain area lying within the northern boundary of Sierra Madre was provided Tuesday evening, when the city council voted unanimously to extend city pipe lines to new fire plug locations overlooking areas which fire department and Forest Service officials state are the most dangerous within the city's boundaries. Long considered as a vital link in the fire protective system, the locations were decided upon after a careful field survey by Fire Chief Richards and members of the council.

One of the new lines will extend protection to the brush-covered slope overlooking the upper end of Sierra Madre Canyon on the Flood Control road, a short distance below the dam. The other will afford protection to the area overlooking Marlborough Terrace, long considered as highly vulnerable by Forest Service officials. This will be accomplished by tapping a high pressure line in Marlborough Terrace, then constructing a new line up a ridge to where it intersects the Mt. Wilson Trail, one-half mile from the foot of the trail. The fire department is equipped with light portable high pressure hose with which it will be possible to cover a large mountain area from this point. With the new plugs it is thought possible to prevent forest fires coming down into the city, or a fire within the city to eat into the forest.

Addition of these two plugs will practically complete the system of water protection across the city's entire northern boundary along the edge of Angelus forest. All the major canyons in that area are already protected by existing hydrants, in upper Bailey canyon; on a ridge behind the Henszey property at the northern end of Lima street; in Floral Valley; Auburn Canyon; Sierra Madre Canyon; foot of Sturtevant Trail; and from three reservoirs—the Carter reservoir north of Auburn avenue; the Vogel reservoir, and another reservoir north of the Passionist Fathers Monastery.

Veterans To Clean Up Cemetery

Legion And VFW Posts Join In Task Sunday—Volunteers Are Welcome

Sunday morning, bright and early, about 20 members of Sierra Madre American Legion Post 297 and Sierra Madre Post 3208, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will meet at the cemetery to clean and beautify the final resting places of all who are buried there. In former years only the graves of veterans have been cared for, but this year the entire cemetery will be cleaned up for Memorial Day. Aid of other Sierra Madreans who wish to volunteer will be greatly appreciated on Sunday morning to assist in making the cemetery as beautiful as possible.

Thursday, May 25, men of the veteran organizations, assisted by women of the Auxiliary, will make and paint the white crosses that will decorate the graves of Sierra Madre's war dead on Tuesday, May 30.

A call for red, white and blue flowers is being sent out by the Legion Auxiliary. These flowers will be used to decorate graves of veterans, although flowers of any color are acceptable. Sierra Madreans who are willing to donate flowers are asked to call Mrs. Embree at 3301.

Firemen's Annual Dance Will Be Held Saturday, June 17

Sierra Madre's fire department will hold its third annual summer card party and dance at the Woman's clubhouse Saturday evening, June 17. This event, which taxed the capacity of the clubhouse in 1937 and again in 1938, has no relation to the firemen's holiday party, proceeds of which go entirely towards the Christmas party at the city park and the distribution of Christmas baskets to the less fortunate.

The revenue derived from the sale of tickets from this party will go into the firemen's uniform fund for the replacement of uniforms burned and otherwise destroyed in the performance of their duty. The men are obliged to supply their own uniforms and being volunteers they are, of course, drawing no salary.

City Orders Weed Covered Lots All Cleaned By May 24

Placards were posted on weed covered lots throughout the city Wednesday advising the owners that if lots are not cleaned and the weed nuisance abated by Wednesday, May 24, the city will move crews in to do the work and add the cost to the owners' tax bills. This always amounts to 40 or 50 per cent more than the property owner could have the work done for himself, because of cost of bookkeeping and supervision. The city council Tuesday night fixed 7:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, May 23, for hearing objections to this procedure.

Womans Club Offers Something New At A Luncheon

Sierra Madreans who have been delighted with delicious smorgasbord luncheons, will have an opportunity to enjoy such an affair at the Woman's Club next Wednesday when a group of club members are giving a benefit brunch and bridge. The affair is not in any sense a woman's gathering and business men who wish a delicious meal, also giving their support to the club, are invited to be present.

E. J. Webster Answers Last Call

Last Of Sierra Madre's Civil War Veterans Dies At The Age Of 91 Years

Death came Monday evening to Sierra Madre's last Civil War veteran and one of its most beloved citizens, bringing to an end the intensely interesting career of Edgar J. Webster at the age of 91.

The family home at 121 East Alegria avenue bore witness to one of Mr. Webster's hobbies—that of traveling. Many curios picked up during his 16 years of continuous traveling all over the world transformed the home into a near-museum. It was his boast that he had visited every country in the world that flew a flag, and named Tibet, Afghanistan and the North and South Poles as the few places he had not been.

Born of pioneer stock in a log cabin on a Hudson, Michigan, farm, Mr. Webster was one of nine children, none of whom survive him. When the Civil War broke out he, his father and four older brothers were off to the front at President Lincoln's first call. Only a youngster at the time, Mr. Webster had to wait until he was 16 before he could volunteer.

He served in General Grant's Wilderness campaign before Richmond, reported to be one of the bloodiest battles in war history. At Cold Harbor, Mr. Webster almost lost both legs from a musket ball fired at close range. With mud and his own jackknife as a first aid kit, he cared for himself, but the war was over before he was able to walk again.

Taking up the practice of law as a young man, Mr. Webster retired from the profession in 1889 and entered the real estate business. Coming West he became one of the Empire Builders in Spokane, Washington, and until his death retained extensive interests in the Northwest, including an estate, "Idle Wild," on Lake Pone O'Reille, Idaho, where until recently he spent his summers.

New Priest Is Coming To St. Ritas

Rev. Alan Prendergast Takes Up New Duties At Monastery Sunday, May 21

Following a pastorate of almost a year to the day at St. Rita's church, Rev. Father Alan Prendergast, C.P., is leaving the church but not Sierra Madre. He has been assigned to new duties Sunday, May 21, at the Passionist Fathers Monastery. Father Prendergast came to Sierra Madre on May 29, 1938, from Louisville, where he was assistant pastor of St. Agnes parish. He will be succeeded at St. Rita's by Rev. Father Augustine Scannell of Detroit, Mich. Father Scannell has had many years of experience as a priest and comes to Sierra Madre Saturday, May 20, from St. Paul's of the Cross Monastery, in Detroit.

Order Work Started On New Bridge

City Rejects Flood Control Offer To Handle Grand View Avenue Project

So that there will be no further delay in construction of the East Grand View Avenue bridge over the Little Santa Anita wash the city council was obliged to refuse the offer of the Los Angeles Flood control commission to handle the job and at a meeting Tuesday evening so advised flood control officials. The work will be done at once directly under the city's supervision with WPA labor. The flood control commission was unable to guarantee completion of the contract within 120 days. The city received an allocation from the state for the project with a proviso that the work would be completed within that time. It will be carried on in connection with the re-building of the Santa Anita channel which is now well under way. The city will have the benefit of the services of Mr. Utman, flood control engineer in charge of the channel work, and a noted bridge builder, who will do the engineering work on the bridge and supervise its construction without cost to the city, so long as the flood control channel work is in progress. Completion of the channel work within the city called for some slight changes in the bridge construction and less steel than originally called for will be necessary. Contract for the steel was tentatively awarded on Tuesday to the Los Angeles Iron and Steel Company. Bids of the Arrow Rock and Sand Company for concrete and other materials had already been accepted.

constructed for Safeway by Lockhart and Shattuck, prominent Southern California contractors. Adjacent to the new store building is a large parking lot, for the convenience of Safeway customers. The building includes the latest improvements in earthquake-resistant and fire-proof construction and is modern in every respect. Its brightly colored front helps make the store an attractive spot in the community that it serves. The market's interior layout has been made for the convenience of its customers. The fixtures of the Safeway are a perfect combination of beauty and utility. They feature

Operetta Will Be Presented June 20 By St. Ritas Pupils

A charming operetta, "Gerda and Kay or The Snow Queen" is now being rehearsed by pupils of St. Rita's school for presentation June 8th in the St. Rita's school auditorium. A splendid cast has been chosen and enthusiasm waxes high to make this operetta a big success.

FIREMEN PLAN CLASS TO TEACH BOYS HOW TO FIGHT BRUSH AND FOREST FIRES

A school for the training of boys and young men of Sierra Madre in the fighting of brush and forest fires will be opened at the city hall Saturday afternoon, May 20.

The idea originated with the Sierra Madre fire department which will sponsor the class, with the active support and cooperation of the forest service, through Pat Harlan, district forest ranger, who will assist in the training work.

"Because of Sierra Madre's location, right at the forest boundary, it is of utmost importance that we have as large a trained fire fighting force as possible," said Fire Chief W. D. Richards, in outlining plans for the school. "Because of the comparatively light rainfall and the absence of any precipitation for many weeks the vegetation is drying out at an almost alarming rate with the probability that the fire hazard during the summer months will be greater than for many years, and we are hopeful that a large class will be ready to augment the existing fire fighting agencies before the hot weather arrives. Each year we hope to continue the training of the youth of Sierra Madre so that we may have an effective force always available. With the course of training we have in mind, we hope to make fire fighting safe for the boys and young men who are expected to join the class by teaching them how to keep out of the path of fires, to watch the course of the wind and how to safely combat onrushing flames. "Membership in the class will be limited to boys over 16 years of age and all young men are urged to join. The first lessons will be oral and the sessions will be held at the city hall. A little later, when the basic ideas have been instilled in the class, we will have a series of practical demonstrations beginning with the burning of grass and weeds on the city property around the pumping station and spreading grounds. Every year there are several brush fires there and we propose this year, with proper safeguards, to burn off the area. The handling of this fire will be the first practical lesson for the class, which will meet for the first time at 2 p.m., May 20."

65-Piece Band Will Lead Memorial Day Parade

The 65-piece McKinley high school band from Pasadena will lead the most pretentious Memorial Day parade ever held in Sierra Madre. Arrangements for the band to appear, under the directions of Charles Dana, were completed Wednesday by Commander Norman B. Jensen of the local Legion post. The band left Thursday morning for San Francisco to compete for the state school band championship at the Golden Gate Exposition.

Play Breaks Attendance Records

"Great American Family" Sets New High Mark At The Pasadena Playhouse

"The Great American Family," now featured at the Pasadena Playhouse has broken the attendance record set five years ago by "Yes, My Darling Daughter." Dramatization of Lee Shippey's best seller novel has packed the theatre at each performance since the premiere with a complete sell out last Saturday afternoon. Several hundred tickets for tomorrow afternoon's matinee had already been sold Monday morning. The play opened on May 2 and the theatre management announced yesterday that it will be continued for a third week in response to popular demand, since hundreds had expressed keen disappointment over their inability to secure seats during the first two weeks.

The novel is now in its 10th edition, with over 50,000 copies on bookshelves in the United States and in many foreign countries. Houghton Mifflin, publishers, nominated the story of American life as their Pulitzer Prize novel selection, and Cardinal Hayes expressed his approval, as well as the board of review of the Christian Science Monitor. It was chosen last year as one of five to be adapted to Braille by the Library of Congress, one of the highest honors in American writing circles.

As a play it is due for high stage rank and negotiations are pending for Broadway staging and picture rights.

Four Streets Sure To Be Improved

Two More Expected To Be Ready For City's Paving Crews Before May 31

Work was resumed on the paving and curbing of Mariposa avenue between Hermosa and Lima streets Wednesday after a lull of about three weeks. When the job is completed in about 20 days, work will be started on three other streets, the property owners of which have signed up for the improvement and placed their money in escrow at the Sierra Madre Savings Bank. Before these streets are completed it is expected that money will be in escrow to allow immediate paving of two additional thoroughfares.

Streets for the improvement of which money is now in hand, the property owners contributing the cost of materials and the city, out of its gas tax revenue, wages for labor, are Mariposa avenue from Sunnyside avenue to Michillinda Blvd.; Manzanita avenue from Park avenue midway to Lima street; and Park avenue from Ramona avenue to Orange Grove avenue. With the deadline for property owner cooperation fixed for May 31, more than half the money necessary for the paving of Mariposa avenue from Park avenue to Lima street, and for Alegria avenue from Baldwin avenue to Mountain Trail has been deposited.

Work on Mariposa avenue between Hermosa and Lima streets was halted three weeks ago when the city decided to advertise for bids for a contract and for materials. Tuesday was fixed as the time for opening bids. No contractor's bid was received and the city exercised its right to reject all bids for materials, later awarding the material contract to the Arrow Rock and Sand company. Work was immediately resumed Wednesday morning and it is expected will be completed in less than three weeks.

Another Honor For Ella Sheppard Bush

Sierra Madre's well known miniature painter, Miss Ella Sheppard Bush, 223 West Laurel avenue, received another honor early this month when directors of the Pennsylvania Society of Miniature Painters voted that she be made an honorary life member of the society. The meeting was held in Philadelphia on May 4. Miss Bush has been a member of the Society since 1910.

Delay Action On Edison Franchise

Council Hears Long Discussion And Postpones Decision Until Tuesday

After an hour's discussion on the subject Tuesday evening, the city council postponed final action on the Edison Company's application for a franchise in Sierra Madre until a special adjourned meeting next Tuesday evening, May 16. It heard Dale Selig, franchise attorney for the Southern California Edison Company; Fred Schwartz, district manager of the company; Henry J. Nord, a resident of Manzanita avenue, and Al S. Myers.

Mr. Selig assured the council that no municipality was receiving a greater return from its franchise than Sierra Madre would enjoy under the pending ordinance and that in most cases they are receiving less than the one-half of one percent on gross income within the city it is provided Sierra Madre shall receive.

Mr. Myers said the constitutional franchise now held by the company covers only the furnishing of electricity for light and that the company does not now enjoy a franchise for the distribution of power, though if the pending ordinance was adopted the company will enjoy a franchise for an indefinite period for the furnishing of power, for home appliances and otherwise. Mr. Selig said this is true.

Mr. Nord wanted to know if it was necessary to grant the franchise at this time or whether the matter could not be taken up through the railroad commission with the possibility of securing a reduction of rates to the consumers of this area. He thought the franchise might be held up as a lever to secure the reduced rates.

Mr. Schwartz explained that the company's rates here are practically the same as in all other communities served by the company, except for household purposes where there was a slight difference.

Mr. Myers reiterated his statement made to the council two weeks ago that he was not opposing granting of the franchise but he thought action might be delayed in the hope of securing terms more favorable to the city.

Winners In Fete Art Contest To Be Named Next Tuesday

Sixty-five Sierra Madre scenes, done in oil and water colors, are on the walls of the council chamber at the city hall. They were entered by 56 different artists in the Sierra Madre Arts Guild contest during the Wistaria Fete and will be on exhibition through May 31.

The prize winners will be announced at a dinner at Wistaria Vine Gardens Tuesday, May 17. The pictures were judged Monday by Arthur Miller, art critic of the Los Angeles Times; Paul Lauritz of the Painters and Sculptors Club, and the Salmagander Club of New York City, and Richard Taggart of the Pasadena Artists Association.

City's Beauty To Be Chosen On May 24

Sierra Madre's contender in the San Gabriel Valley beauty contest to be staged at Santa Anita race track during the week beginning May 27, will be selected at a dinner and fashion show given by the Junior Woman's Club at the clubhouse here Wednesday evening, May 24.

Out-of-town judges will select the girl who will represent Sierra Madre from among local entries. She will compete with winners of local contests in 33 other cities for the title of the Queen of the San Gabriel Valley Exposition, a ninety year affair at the race track sponsored by the Arcadia Lions Club, assisted by Lions Clubs throughout the district. The Queen will be given a trip to the Golden Gate Expo at San Francisco, with all expenses paid. Winner of the contest in each of the 34 cities will be presented with the bathing ensemble she wears when the queen is chosen.

Sierra Madre Woman's Club Juniors under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mary Schwartz together with the Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring the local beauty contest event which promises to carry unusual interest since it is the first bathing beauty contest held in the city for many years. Miss Muriel Tarr of Sierra Madre chapter, O.E.S., is in charge of the dinner.

Twenty bands, a big time circus, consisting of 22 internationally famous acts, a rodeo in which dozens of skilled performers will participate; a wild west show, pet show, side-show features and many other features will be offered to the public at the exposition in Arcadia in addition to industrial and agricultural exhibits.

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen."—Hebrews 11:1.

"For what is faith unless it is to believe what you do not see?"—St. Augustine.

MOTHER'S DAY

With no effort at all, we can be thoughtful.

With no effort at all, we can let Mother's Day go by, indifferently, perhaps a little scornfully.

With no effort at all, we can pretend to be smart, and mutter something about it being "just a lot of sentiment."

But is that all there is to Mother's Day—just a lot of sentiment?

Let's think back now. When you were a youngster did you have any protests to make against the "sentiment" which guarded you, comforted you, and shared your troubles, the "sentiment" which brought you sympathy and understanding, the "sentiment" which expected great things of you, and stood up for you, and when things went wrong—and perhaps none too flatteringly for you, still believed in you?

Call that "sentiment" if you like, but it was more than that. It was devotion and self-sacrifice, patience and faith, with no thought of reward save—YOU.

But we so easily tend to forget all that. We need the friendly reminder of Mother's Day to let us know that right here in the present is a time, and a day, to show our thoughtfulness with a token of remembrance.

She remembers.

Will you?

Case and Comment

By Charles B. Showalter

(Editor's Note: The opinions expressed herein are those of Mr. Showalter and do not necessarily reflect the attitude or opinions of THE NEWS.)

THE homely philosophy of David Harum, when he said: "It's a good thing for a dog to have fleas; it keeps him from meditating on being a dog"—has been very aptly applied to the American people. The war hysteria designed and promoted by government propagandists and publicity agents, has diverted the attention of the people away from more dangerous issues at home. And it suits the purpose of the administration most admirably to keep the people from meditating on their own troubles. But the troubles still persist, though they get scant attention from the seat of the mighty. While we busy ourselves with everybody's business but our own, and give all time and attention to foreign affairs, the administration drifts along without a domestic policy worthy of the name. The President and the Congress have not yet dealt with a single question of national importance. While we plan great armaments to keep Hitler out of Poland, Mussolini out of Africa, and persuade Stalin to turn democrat, our own great problems of taxes, relief, deficits and public spending drift along unabated. And while we are aiming to fight Communism, Nazism and Fascism abroad, we are permitting these same subversive influences to grow unrestricted here at home, and, to our everlasting shame and dishonor, with the knowledge and assistance of officials of our own government. Small wonder that the Administration would like to keep the public eye on Rome and Berlin instead of Washington! Well, here is something to think about, if you are not too dazed and hopeless to think:

A committee of the House of Representatives has obtained undeniable evidence that WPA funds and facilities—that is, public money, taxpayers money, your money, money taken from loyal citizens—are used to promote Communism, through the Workers' Alliance.

The Workers Alliance, a union of WPA workers, claiming 300,000 members, was organized in the auditorium of the Department of Labor at Washington, in April 1936, under Communist control and a Communist program.

Herbert Benjamin, general secretary-treasurer of the Alliance, admitted in testimony before the committee that he has been a Communist party member for 18 years, and was, until 1931, a party organizer.

He further testified that 3 of the 10 members of the executive board of the Alliance were members of the Communist party.

David Lasser, president of the Workers' Alliance, testified that last year he and Benjamin made a trip to Soviet Russia to attend a celebration of the Communist revolution. The trip, he admitted, was financed by the Alliance, which derives its funds from dues paid by workers on the Government's WPA payroll.

And this man Lasser has the ear of the President whenever he will, and runs John L. Lewis a close second as a pressure salesman.

The Workers' Alliance of New York held its state convention in February and Sam Wiseman, executive-secretary of the group, announced the newest strategy for holding and increasing the hand-outs by the government.

Miss Helen Harris, New York Administrator of the National Youth Administration, told them in her opening address: "Those of us who have the responsibility of directing the President's program of relief are glad to know that the Workers Alliance is growing in strength and power, because we have found you to be sane and fearless in your support of this program of relief." The records of the Dies Committee furnish further enlightenment; as for example:

That C. Spencer, secretary of the Workers' Alliance in Philadelphia, is also a teacher in the Communist Workers' School in that city; that in 1938 a Brooklyn grand jury accused the Workers' Alliance "of fostering American doctrine and with intimidation of relief officials;" that in the 1937 city elections in New York the Workers' Alliance announced in The Communist Daily Worker that it was "supporting the Communist candidates for City Council;" that Earl Browder, general secretary of the Communist Party, says in his book, "The People's Front," that "it was the Communist Party that brought about the formation of the Worker's Alliance," that in May 1936, Herbert Benjamin, secretary of the Alliance, writing for Imprecor, a Moscow official organ of the Comintern, on Unification of the Unemployed Organizations of the U.S.A., reported as follows: "The merger represents the successful culmination of a campaign conducted for nearly four years by the Communist Party of the United States of America and by the National Unemployed Councils which were organized and led by Communists since the beginning of the crisis late in 1929. . . . Due to the fact that the Councils were first in the field, and were guided by communists . . . they were able to crystallize a correct and comprehensive program."

Now it does seem obvious that the Congress should refuse further appropriations of funds, provided by loyal taxpayers for the relief of the unemployed, to be used to foster Communism on a vast scale.

For certainly Communism, which seeks to establish a "Soviet America" under a "dictatorship of the proletariat," can have no purpose in the Workers' Alliance except a subversive purpose—the overthrow of the American form of government and of America's free institutions.

And it is equally certain that the government of the United States could liquidate all these subversive organizations overnight if it cared to do so, and was not deterred by the number of votes to be considered.

Legislative Comments

By T. FENTON KNIGHT
Assemblyman, 48th District

IF THE economy bloc in the Senate does not crack under pressure, further cuts in the Governor's budget may be voted the near future. To date it would appear that taxpayers of the State have shown much less interest in the figures that will be finally written into the budget than the spending agencies which center in Sacramento. Thus far members of the Legislature who have been wielding the ax in an effort to trim down governmental expenditures have had little organized assistance in support of their position by citizen groups directly affected.

Practically every reduction made by the Assembly in the coming biennium expense items is being vigorously attacked by the heads of the departments concerned. In most cases these arguments are difficult to combat unless accounting data of a technical nature is made available to the members who are determined to reduce expenses to the lowest possible level. The average legislator has neither the time nor the technical skill to obtain this information and must look to the organizations throughout the state that have made a special study of these matters.

The demand for reduction in public spending is not a matter of partisan politics. It is the answer to a popular demand regardless of party. This is clearly indicated by the statistical facts which have been the foundation of all arguments offered by the so-called economy bloc.

Data made available through the State Controlled's office reveals that the total produced income in California for the last fiscal year ending June 30, 1938, was approximately 21 per cent less than that produced nine years previous while governmental expenditures have advanced practically 31 per cent for the corresponding period.

Economy-minded members of the Legislature, regardless of party, are convinced that these two diverging trends are a danger signal which must be heeded and are doing everything in their power to remedy the situation without crippling the public services to which the citizens of this state have become accustomed. To accomplish this the taxpayers themselves will have to cooperate with all state agencies by reducing their demands for all services that might be considered in the luxury or semi-luxury class.

Note to old men: Let's forget how hard we worked when we were young.

Follow These Exercises to Keep Figure

By PATRICIA LINDSAY

© Bell Syndicate.—WNU Service.

WHY is it necessary for the modern woman to use an artificial method to strengthen her muscles and to promote good health? It is because our manner of living offers almost no opportunity to use the larger, important muscles of the body—the abdominal, back and thigh muscles.

We live inactive lives. We travel by motor or train more than we walk. We do our housework with electrical aids or have servants do it for us. Most office jobs demand eight hours of sitting and frequently in poor posture. Selling work in stores requires the over use of the legs and feet. Sewing, writing, bridge and many other so-called activities are actually inactivities!

Games No Substitute.

You probably think that recreational sports such as tennis, bowling, badminton, golf and riding are sufficient exercise. But they are not. They stimulate the body through increased circulation and allow the skin pores to secrete waste but they do not build the body symmetrically because they are "one-sided." Seldom is a woman adept in using both her right hand and her left hand in sports.

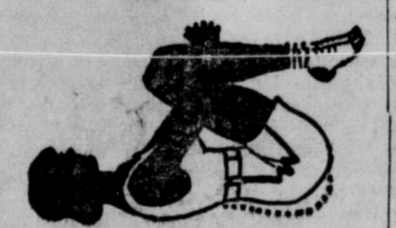

Walking can be an excellent activity if it is done on soil which allows a spring to the step and if the body is carried with good posture at a steady pace and if you wear loose clothing and correct walking shoes.

Swimming is the exception in recreational sports. It exercises all the muscles of the body providing no one stroke is overpracticed, and it develops the body symmetrically and beautifully.

These Exercises Will Help

So, you see, unless you can swim daily it becomes quite necessary for you to resort to corrective exercises if you desire good health and a supple body. Exercises that will offset the ravages of our sedentary, inactive living. Here are two for firming the vital abdominal muscles, or in other words, for flattening your tummy! Why not begin scientifically to develop a pleasing figure?

(Exercise 1)

For Stout Woman

Lie flat on your back, arms at sides—parallel with body. Bend knees back to abdomen. Then pull knees with clasped hands back to chest, gradually raising the hips from floor three to four inches. Lower hips—keeping knees bent. Repeat four times and relax. Repeat not more than 12 times each day.

(Exercise 2)

For Thin Woman with Protruding Abdomen

Sit on floor with legs wide apart and knees slightly relaxed. Place hands palm downward just behind hips for support. Now push your abdomen out, to right, back, to left—making a complete circle such as you would in a Hula-Hula dance! As you circle consciously tighten the muscles. Circle five times without stopping. Relax. Circle five times in opposite direction. Circle twenty times in all.

HINT-OF-THE-DAY

If you are the nervous, high-strung type of individual, why not learn to relax your way to poise. Take things easy. Rest. Exercise to relax only. Stop worrying.

It is never the thoroughly relaxed person who suffers from insomnia. Lack of sleep is usually a symptom of a harried mind or a nervous disorder. Much can be done to overcome insomnia.

Regular sleeping hours are quite necessary. Make it a habit to retire the same hour and to arise the same hour until you are relaxed.

Do not overeat or eat too fast. Both are likely to give you restless nights. You can skip a meal a day if you wish. Or substitute for two meals each day, a glass of milk every four hours and glasses of fruit juices in between.

Do not resort to nerve sedatives unless your physician advises them for you.

BOGGED DOWN

For a quarter of a century

presidents have fought for it, but not until last week did the first general revision in the structure of the Federal government in 150 years take place. That was when the House of Representatives approved the first of three reorganization plans. What changes will these streamlined revisions make? A saving of from $15,000,000 to $20,000,000 a year, it is claimed. It also means goodbye to the WPA—but in name only! The WPA, PW, United States Housing Authority, the Public Roads Bureau, under present plans, will be merged into one public works agency. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation, the Home Owners Loan Corporation, the Federal Housing Administration, disappear as separate units into a single credit agency. Following the same course, the Social Security Board, the Public Health Service, the Bureau of Public Education, are consolidated in one public welfare agency. Streamlined revision should help government do its job with more efficiency, but it raises a new problem. Will temporary relief agencies now merged into permanent units also become permanent?

Troubled times abroad make strange things come to pass. Rumania wants to settle her $64,000,000 war debt to this country. No crystal gazer is needed to explain this sudden outburst of interest. Under the Johnson Act, defaulting government may float further loans in this country, until its debt is wiped out. If debtors now want to settle, certainly the United States has no objection to taking payment. It will be the first good news from across the Atlantic in years!

Judging from all signs, America has definitely come of age. Her popularity continues to grow by leaps and bounds. Nobody, for example, has to travel abroad to see royalty any more. Royalty itself is beating a path right to America's doorstep, and to California's. The Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Denmark have just enjoyed a brief taste of Western hospitality in this State, and the Crown Prince and Crown Princess of Norway are on their way. Meanwhile, the White House and the State Department are bustling over the coming visit to these shores of King George and Queen Elizabeth of England, and the Duke and Duchess of Windsor are again considering a visit to America. It's a far cry from the day a struggling, upstart republic was looked down upon by the nobility of a worldly-wise Europe. Today it's America which has the power and the glory envied by old Europe. America has come of age, and the suitors for her favors are many.

A quiet campaign in Congress to provide pensions for the nation's lawmakers has just come to light. If warm opposition is aroused over such a piece of legislation, it won't come from the Capitol building. Rep. Ramspeck, who nurtured the idea, said he sounded out many congressmen. The approval was virtually unanimous. Who can remember the good old days when pensions were a partisan issue?

Buses figure prominently in the future transit picture in Fresno. San Jose and Stockton. Fresno's trolley system is now being replaced by buses and early motorization of all lines is planned. San Jose lines, formerly an electric railway system, are now operated by motor coach through-out that area. Stockton still uses street cars. A change of ownership gives control of the traction systems to the Pacific City Lines, a heavy user of motor coaches. Southern Pacific Railroad had the former stock control.

Homing Pigeons Of Local Boys Take Racing Honors

Pigeons belonging to four Sierra Madre boys took top honors in the weekly race sponsored by the San Gabriel Valley Racing Pigeon Club on Sunday. The birds flew from Sacramento where they had been shipped by express, back home to their own lofts. The fastest time was credited to the bird owned by Hugo Annas with an average speed of 1,227 yards per minute, just a trifle faster than another bird owned by Annas in second place at 1,236 yards per minute. Bob Murphy's entry was timed at 1,225.83 yards per minute and the entry of John Coit at 1,225.58 yards per minute. Times credited to the Annas birds was the fastest recorded in the series of spring races sponsored by the valley organization. There is one more race left in the series, which will be held Saturday. The races started about eight weeks ago, with a distance of 100 miles, gradually working up to 500 miles for the final race.

Notes From The Grammar School

Mr. McElfresh took the boys down to the city hall and they saw the fire department, the engineering department and visited the city clerk, and the girls took a trip to the city hall and they saw the same things as the boys. Wednesday Mr. McElfresh is taking the boys down again and on Friday the girls. We expect to visit the police department. We are enjoying our visits.

Speaking of trips, Mrs. MacKenzie's room took a trip last Friday morning to the Columbia Broadcasting station. They had lunch and in the afternoon they went to the Planetarium in Griffith Park.

Our team played another ball game at Santa Anita Park on Saturday. They played the Roosevelt school team, and we were defeated 11-0. After that game Sierra Madre team played the Hornets and beat them 12-9. Next Saturday we are playing another game. Mr. Munzinger umpired the game.—Audrey Maiben.

The 7a boys visited the engineering department at the city hall where the city makes plans of the town and the survey for building new streets. Mr. Graham and Mr. Schwartz told the boys about surveying and the aqueduct. The boys then went to the fire department and Chief Richards told us how to turn in a fire alarm and how the motor would pump water from the 60 gallon tank on the trucks. The small tank is to put out small fires before they spread. Mr. Swanson told us about first-aid and how the artificial respiration device works. The device holds two drums of oxygen. Mr. Pratt, the city clerk, told the boys the duties of his office.—Bill Murphy.

Mr. McElfresh showed some slides on the canals throughout the world. He also showed some pictures on Alaska.—Sid Brock.

In the Sierra Madre school we are having a ping-pong tournament. Sidney Brock is the champion of the boys and Marion of the girls. Today they are going to fight it out.—Goody Simmons.

Sierra Madre Junior Red Cross Sends Ten Delegates To Huge Conference In Pasadena Tomorrow

Ten youngsters from the Junior Red Cross unit of the Sierra Madre school directed by Miss Elizabeth Steinberger, will join units of 13 chapters in Los Angeles county at a huge conference in the Pasadena Civic Auditorium tomorrow morning. The local children will be accompanied by Miss Steinberger and Mrs. Frances MacKenzie, 6a and 7b teacher, who will contribute a talk to the section for Teachers and Sponsors.

Dr. John A. Sexson, superintendent of Pasadena schools, will welcome the guests. International good will, health and safety phases of the Red Cross program will be presented in the three sections of the conference. A. L. Schafer, manager of the Pacific branch, and R. E. Gillette, director of the Junior Red Cross in the Pacific area, San Francisco, will be guest speakers. Mr. Schafer will talk to the older student group on "International Aspects of the Red Cross," and will tell the elementary school delegates more about the "National Children's Fund."

The elementary grade section will feature Mexican dances in costume by the Jarabe Club, Pasadena settlement, and Mexican legends by Mrs. Priscilla Neff. Clarendon, songs, puppets, plays, and handcraft exhibits are also scheduled to instruct and entertain the delegates.

YOU CAN'T AFFORD TO MISS THE "WANT AD" COLUMN IN THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS.

Twenty-Four Tots Answer Call To PTA's Roundup

Twenty-four children who will be entering kindergarten or first grade in the grammar school or St. Rita's next semester were examined at the annual summer "round up" held at the grammar school Wednesday morning. Dr. M. H. A. Peterson and Dr. Nathan Jacobs, of this city, gave physical examinations and Dr. Harold R. Benedict examined the children's teeth.

The "round up" is arranged by the Pasadena Council of the Parent Teachers Association, and representing the council, Mrs. Clarence C. Boening, chairman of the summer "round up" activities, visited the school and thought the local set-up was particularly effective and efficient. Mrs. Wells, school nurse, assisted the doctors.

In the fall Mrs. E. D. Fontaine, local "round up" chairman, and Mrs. Wells will make a check-up to ascertain whether or not defects have been corrected. If it is a clinical case, medical care is arranged for whenever possible.

Gold Hill Players Will Entertain Arts Guild

"Unintelligibility in poetry" was discussed at Friday's meeting of the poet's group, Sierra Madre Arts Guild, by John Collier of this city, and as a result the group passed a resolution that all poetry should be written so as to be understood. Mr. Collier delighted his audience with a parody on Samson and Delilah and another on Hamlet.

Monrovia Gold Hill Players will give a one-act play at the June meeting, and in July when the Guild will celebrate its first anniversary, all members will be entertained at a get-together in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCullagh, 154 East Montecito avenue.

BENEFIT TEA AT PLAZA HOME NEXT FRIDAY

A benefit tea will be held at the Plaza Children's Home at 72 West Alegria avenue, Friday, May 19, from 2 to 4 o'clock. It is being sponsored by the Plaza Community Center Club, and a program of interesting talks and music has been arranged. The public is cordially invited to attend.

With Sierra Madre Students At Wilson Jr. High

Bud Hartman, 10-2, is one of the returning lettermen who will participate in the final track meet scheduled for May 25 and June 1 on the Wilson Jr. High track. This year's meeting will probably see several records broken because of the very fast Wilson track built on springy soil.

Elizabeth Tarr was one of four members of Wilson Junior Red Cross Council who planned a tea given May 10. Students interested in Junior Red Cross work attended.

Melna Scott, Roberta Roberts, Phyllis Buchan and Gloria Dougherty attended a Hawaiian banquet at the Pasadena Presbyterian church Saturday evening, May 6. All Girl Reserve and Tri-Y groups of Pasadena were invited.

Virginia Lorenzini, 10-2, editor of the Wilsonian, spoke to Miss Alice M. Young's 7th grade conference group on how the paper is managed and printed.

YOUR HOME AND MINE

BY ANNE WILSON

Cheerful informality marks today's entertaining. On many occasions, the up-to-the-minute hostess serves her guests from the buffet, without the fuss and bother of the formal dinner table.

Successful buffet entertaining, of course, demands modern equipment. The uncertainties of the little alcohol lamp are not to be tolerated. Dashing back and forth between kitchen and dining room for more coffee or fresh toast is out of date. Everything is cooked right at the table in front of the guests. For instance, a buffet supper may be prepared with the aid of an electric roaster and electric coffee maker. The main course is cooked in the roaster ahead of time and served directly from it. If the crowd is large, an Italian spaghetti dish may be prepared in the roaster proper. For a smaller group, various foods may be prepared and served in the small pans of the roaster. Plenty of sparkling hot coffee served from the electric coffee maker is another part of the meal made easier by electrical service.

Familiar Faces Will Greet Customers In City's Newest Food Center

When you step into the new Safeway at 110 West Sierra Madre Blvd. the same smiling crew that was at the Baldwin avenue unit will be there to greet you. At the head of this group of efficient merchandisers is Percy R. Penn. The market manager, has been in the Baldwin avenue store during the major part of his two years with Safeway.

"We are happy to open the beautiful new store," Mr. Penn stated yesterday. "We feel sure that with the new and larger location, better parking facilities, new arrangement, and new fixtures, we will be better able than ever before to demonstrate to food buyers of Sierra Madre the value of Safeway smiling service, high quality, and economy prices. We invite everyone living in or near Sierra Madre to join with us in our grand opening celebration this weekend."

The crew at the new store is aided and guided by an experienced supervisor, E. S. Randall, who is operating head for Safeway in the San Gabriel valley. Mr. Randall first started with Safeway 16 years ago and worked his way up by the regular route from salesman to manager, to supervisor.

PERCY R. PENN
For the past eight years manager of Baldwin avenue unit, will be manager of new Safeway ager in charge of the meat department is Richard R. Patterson. Others in the crew include Charles Miller and Floyd Needels. Mr. Penn, the store manager, is the veteran of the crew, having been a member of the Safeway family for the past 16 years. He has been with Safeway in Sierra Madre since May 1931. Mr. Patterson, the market man, is a meat cutter of wide experience and has been with Safeway for the past five years, coming to the Sierra Madre market in the spring of 1937.

Mr. Miller, grocery salesman, has been with Safeway since the fall of 1936 and in the Sierra Madre unit for the past six months. Mr. Needels, grocery

BANK HEAD TO HEAR ASSOCIATION CHIEF

R. C. Lewis, president of the Sierra Madre Savings Bank, will attend the annual meeting of Group 5, California Bankers Association at the Biltmore Hotel tomorrow.

"Public Relations" is the theme for the 1939 spring meeting. Philip Benson, president of the American Bankers Association, is flying out from New York to address the convention on "How Banking Meets Public Needs."

GIRL LEARNING TO DRIVE CRASHES

Lilly Gross, 306 West Highland avenue, a 15-year old girl learning to drive an automobile, made too sharp a turn going south on Grand View avenue and crashed into the rear of a car owned by Mrs. H. W. Coit, 270 Grove street parked on the east side of Grove street near Grand View. With Miss Gross was Gerald Gold, of Los Angeles, who was teaching her. Sunday afternoon when the accident occurred. No one was injured.

Rifle Club To Hold A "Test Shoot" Sunday Morning

In line with a request by the city that they hold a "test shoot" before permission is granted for use of the upper part of Bailey Canyon as a rifle range, a group of members from the Santa Anita Rifle Club will hold a shoot Sunday morning.

Residents in the vicinity are being notified of the event and their reaction following the shoot will determine whether or not it is feasible to grant permission. If residents in the area are not annoyed by the firing, it is probable that a permit for the group to operate in Bailey Canyon will be issued by the city council.

Gala Celebration Marks Opening Of New Safeway Store

low-type shelving to make each item in the grocery department easily accessible to the shopper. Merchandise is conveniently and logically arranged to make the location of each item on the days shopping list as easy as possible. Wide aisles and handy baskets permit customers to wait on themselves. Of course, for those who prefer to be waited upon, there is a crew of well-trained, courteous employees to cater to their wants. These men are also ready to take care of child shoppers in the store.

The meat department of the Safeway food center is equipped with modern refrigerated meat cases. These embody the latest developments in humidity and temperature control, and enable the market man to keep each cut in perfect condition for delivery to the customer. Slicing machines, scales and other mechanical equipment in this department are of the most accurate kind obtainable.

Customers in the fruit and vegetable department find a wide selection of quality produce displayed on sanitary tables. In addition to making the green goods available for easy inspection by the customer, the stands are constructed to keep perishable merchandise in the finest possible condition.

In all, this neighborhood Safeway is a marvel of beauty and efficiency. Here, under one roof, you are able to fill all of your food needs. Two firms were instrumental in construction of the new building. Sierra Madre Hardware Company handled the plumbing and Rogers of Sierra Madre Company did the electrical. Vernon Refrigeration and Ice Company of Los Angeles is in the refrigerating system.

Women everywhere are awakening to the happy realization that it is easy to have an electric range. Its exceptional thrift, which saves pennies not only in one but in many ways, is a main reason why so many California homemakers are changing every day to electric cookery.

When you visit your dealer and inquire about electric ranges, you'll be delighted at their reasonable price and generous terms. And when you use the range in your kitchen, you will be further delighted with its economy of operation—approximately one-half cent per person per meal in Edison territory, according to a recent cooking test.

Miss Marjorie Adams, 58 East Carter avenue, will leave next Thursday, May 18, for her home in Fergus Falls, Minn. This is the third winter and spring Miss Adams has spent in Sierra Madre and she is looking forward to her return here next fall.

Local Boy Scout Troops Will Send Two Patrols To Camporee In Arcadia County Park May 20 And 21

Included in the 199 Scout patrols to attend the Boy Scout Camporee May 20 and 21 at Santa Anita Recreational Park will be two patrols from Sierra Madre. The "Cobra" patrol from Troop 1, Congregational Church, includes George Shipway, patrol leader; Tommy Schwartz, Sid Brock, Russell Jensen, Goodrich and William Simons and Lorraine Noble.

Troop 2, St. Rita's, will be represented by a patrol composed of Robin Newbery, Bill Newbery, Jack Colligan, George Grijalva, David Duran and Jerome Thill. These boys will participate in the first aid and fire building projects.

Patrols and their leaders will make camp and at 2 p.m. on the day of the Camporee and everyone is invited to attend and enjoy the many interesting events and demonstrations. It will be the largest camp ever held in this part of the state. Scouts will pack food, make camp and will receive group awards on their ability to live together and the amount of equipment they take which they made themselves.

Sunday morning scouts will attend church services of their own choosing, with a program of entertainment planned for the remainder of the day. The sheriff's pistol team will be one of the features.

Last weekend 17 scouts—10 from Troop 1 and seven from Troop 2, headed by Craig McLaughlin and Joe Hinijos, respectively, journeyed to Camp Huntington for their last outing of the season. The boys camped out and had an all around good time.

To show their appreciation and high regard for their scoutmaster, boys from Troop 1 presented Craig McLaughlin with a complete scoutmaster uniform at the last Court of Honor held at St. Rita's Auditorium.

Monrovia Prepares For Its Greatest Celebration

Wallace Beery, beloved screen bad-man, will act as Grand Marshal of the Monrovia Day parade tomorrow, as the city's 53rd birthday is celebrated with a 19-hour festival.

Binnie Barnes, movie star, will ride on the guest of honor float, and in the 2-mile line of march will be 300 horses, representing the finest California thoroughbred stock.

The day opens at 6 a.m. with the community breakfast at which Jose Arias' Spanish orchestra, the Saddle Tramps, and a male chorus will entertain. The parade forms at 10 o'clock, and at noon will be followed by the old timers luncheon on the high school grounds.

The horse show starts at 2 p.m., and at 8 o'clock there will be two dances. Music during the day will be furnished by the USC Trojans, PJC Rose Tournament Bulldogs, and six other famous outfits.

WILD FLOWERS ON THE DESERT AT PEAK NOW

Wildflowers are now at their peak on the Mojave Desert, states the Outing Department of the National Automobile Club. A beautiful display will be found just north of State Route 138 between Palmdale and Cajon Pass, in the vicinity of Phelan. Delicate coloring and short stems of these desert flowers make it necessary for motorists to walk away from the road about three or four hundred feet to fully appreciate the beauty of the millions of small flowers.

FIRE FLAME

By One of the Boys

THOSE firemen that have not visited the "Quarters" for the past week, have a big surprise in store. For some time Al Bray has been struggling with paint brushes, saw, hammer, vacuum cleaner and scrub brush and the change he has made in the appearance of the rooms above the engine house is nothing less than miraculous. The walls are white and gleaming and if there were any more pictures, the walls could not be seen. A new vent has been placed in the ceiling which should carry off much of the "hot air" and make for much cooler meetings. And many will not know the "kitchenette" with Al's decorations.

Once more the value of the radio in the police car was proven when Jim Heasley sent out a hurry call to Art Johnson to investigate a smoldering chair on a front porch. The chair was reported to the station by a passerby. The call was sent to the radio car and within less than two minutes Johnson had the chair off the porch and the fire out. On arrival of the police car, the chair was much ablaze and had it not been discovered, the house would have been afire with the occupants asleep inside.

ARMY AND NAVY TO COMPETE IN COMMUNITY FUND DRIVE THAT OPENS HERE MONDAY

It will be the Army against the Navy this year when the Kiwanians launch their annual Community Fund drive on Monday. Capt. E. G. Everett, representing the Army, will head one team, with C. E. Rappolee, retired naval officer, leading the other team. This week R. C. Lewis, chairman, together with members of his committee, were busy making final arrangements for the 1939 drive, which is expected to be the most successful campaign ever held. The fund collected will be divided between the Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and Friendly Indians. Secretary Simmons of the Monrovia YMCA, chairman of the Santa Anita district, was guest speaker at Tuesday's Kiwanis meeting. He talked on the coming season at the YMCA camp at Jenks Lake and showed two reels of colored pictures of the lake area. Hi-Y, Tri-Y and boys in Friendly Indian clubs spend several days at the camps during summer vacation. Each year the Kiwanis Club sends several boys and girls to the lake for a week's vacation.

GOOD BUSINESS YEAR AHEAD

Busy scene at the Port of Los Angeles where hundreds of domestic gas refrigerators are being received to supply the local demand. Indication of a prosperous year is seen in the marked increase in purchases during recent months.

A banner business year for southern California is seen in the rate at which domestic gas refrigerators are being purchased in this territory, it was learned today from J. M. Kennedy, district manager of Southern Counties Gas Company.

"Sales of domestic refrigerators are deemed an important index of market conditions in general," Mr. Kennedy declared. "This year to date sales of Servel Electrolux gas refrigerators are markedly in advance of sales over the same period last year.

"There are very definite indications of restored confidence on the part of the buying public, and if the present trend continues, and there seems to be justification for the belief that it will, we will undoubtedly have a very good business year in southern California."

Young musicians who will appear in a recital to be given at a Mother's Day tea at the home of Mrs. George Morridge Saturday afternoon are, Norma Nell Stewart, Henrietta Burnham, Alice Burnham, Nathan Tarr, Celeste Thayer, Lorraine Goldberg, Helen Stewart, Nancy Welton, Betty Jean Askew, Henrietta Sonabria and Richard Jenkins.

Mrs. Amy Faranacci, 76, passed away at General Hospital, Los Angeles, Sunday following a short illness. The deceased suffered a fall in her home at 276 Santa Anita Court recently and was taken to the hospital April 30 where she died early Sunday morning.

Mrs. Faranacci, whose family name was Broberg, was born in Sweden and came to the United States with her relatives in 1902. She lived in Sierra Madre about 15 years and married the late Louis Faranacci approximately five years ago. Her husband passed away in January of last year. She is survived by Mr. Faranacci's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Aladino Martotti, Los Angeles.

Miss Mae Fridham who entered her airedale terrier, Dusty Rusty, in the Los Angeles Dog Show at the Ambassador Gardens last week, is well pleased with his showing, for he received first award in the limit class, and reserved winners award.

At the hospital, disabled war veterans were found working daily, 150 at a time, making the little red poppies. The men earn three cents each for the poppies they make, and each man is permitted to make only 300 of the little memorial flowers.

So eager are these victims of war to make this money that 600 of them are on the waiting list. When one man makes his 300 flowers another takes his place. Usually it takes each, five weeks to make his quota.

If you could see these men, sick, many of them crippled for life, laboriously and earnestly, working sometimes all day to make ten poppies, for which they receive 35 cents, your response to the sale would be overwhelmingly generous. The money received, above cost price, is used annually to help families of these unfortunate men.—Helen Lovejoy.

Woman's Club Notes

CHARTER MEMBERS of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club were honored at the bi-monthly meeting of the Club Wednesday, which marked the 30th anniversary of the laying of the corner stone for the present clubhouse. Seven of the charter members who attended that ceremony were present and following a short business meeting, took charge of the program under the direction of Mrs. Harriet Wright, president emerita.

Appearing on the program were Mrs. Mary Ward, who read a group of charming original poems; Mrs. John C. Dixon, who took the members back to the year 1910 when the club sponsored its first Spring Flower Feista and parade in which there were about eight floats entirely covered with flowers, which followed a line of march down Lima street and through the center of town, finally terminating at the clubhouse where the Fiesta was held.

Mrs. C. H. Baker told of adoption of the club constitution in February, 1907, the laying of the cornerstone in 1909, and the spring and fall flower shows which were then an integral part of the club activities. Mrs. C. W. Jones told of the wild flower exhibits in the spring and their educational advantage for the school children who arranged them.

Mrs. Elizabeth Dietz recounted circumstances surrounding the founding of the club at the home of Mrs. J. A. Osgood and told of the first club meeting at the Town Hall when 53 members were enrolled and the first flower show given on the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Osgood which was the "biggest event" Sierra Madre had known and which cleared one thousand dollars for the club. Mrs. Dietz also spoke of the fine work done by Mrs. Osgood and her associates in building the club into a worth while organization.

Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger gave an inspired talk, calling on the members to continue the spirit of civic achievement and enthusiasm which was evident in all of the earlier club activities and after paying a warm tribute to Mrs. Dixon, volunteered to present a play with the cooperation of the members as a benefit for the organization. Mrs. W. A. Evans reviewed early club events, including lectures, book reviews and flower shows.

Following introduction of former club presidents luncheon was served by Miss Roe Rehr, nutrition economist, who gave a talk on the necessity of proper diet for the attainment of good health. At the morning business session Miss Jessie Dunning, conservation chairman explained the recent conservation bill introduced in Congress by Congressman Harry R. Sheppard of San Bernardino, and made a plea for the inclusion in the bill of the Los Padres National forest in Santa Barbara and adjoining counties.

The meeting voted to send letters to California congressmen requesting the inclusion of the Los Padres Forest in the Sheppard bill which at present asks for an appropriation of $15,000,000 to be spent over a period of 10 years for conservation and protection, in Angeles, San Bernardino and Cleveland National Forests.

The building on Baldwin avenue, formerly occupied by the Safeway store will be headquarters for a rummage sale, sponsored by the Club as a benefit, to be given under the direction of Mrs. W. S. Hull, H. B. Hersey and Milford Thompson, May 27th. Mrs. Hull requests that anyone having articles of any type which are in good condition, communicate with some member of the committee, so that there will be ample merchandise for the sale. A cooked food sale will also be held in conjunction with the rummage sale, and will be under the direction of Mrs. Woodson Jones and Mrs. J. F. Sadler.

Mrs. W. S. Hull, Mrs. Robert McCullagh, and Mrs. Raymond Andrews attended the afternoon tea and musicale at the College Woman's Club in Pasadena Monday.
